SPAIN

Spain is the largest olive oil producer in the world

Spain is also the first olive oil exporting country worldwide

Over 260 varieties of olive trees: a wide range of taste profiles

Spanish olive oil goes through strict quality controls and a severe selection to ensure its highest quality

SPANISH GASTRONOMY

is based on a Mediterranean diet that contains plentiful amounts of healthy and delicious products

A stylized illustration of an olive branch with several green olives, set against a yellow background. The branch is dark green, and the olives are a lighter green. The background is a solid yellow color.
